

Issue: 5

October 2008

Yo yo yo, here we go! All of the Streetfunk classes have started and we're looking forward to a hardcore year of funk and hard work. The team is hoping to put together some nice routines for the groups and we'll be looking at various opportunities for the groups to perform. Also check out the new merchandise line, as we now have hoodies which will help us through the darkness and cold of the British weather! Hope to see you all in class! Peace,

JP

News from the Streetfunk Team!

New Classes for under 5s!

Streetfunk is answering to the increasing demand for classes for the young thundercats!

We are looking into classes for the under 5s, and for the under 3s! Classes will teach basic coordination and simple moves to prepare the kids for the older groups, and instil some funk!

Please email Beth or JP to register your interest in these classes! Contact details are at the end of the newsletter.

We've been busy!

Streetfunk is still undergoing a lot of changes so that we can bring everybody as much funk and energy as possible – it's a big job, but we can handle it!

We will be completely updating the website soon to include more information about the team and what we do, as well as providing images of all the merchandise that's available, and giving you the chance to submit your comments to us! The website will also be sporting the new logo to complete the transformation!

Recently we spent three days with top class photographer Jay McLaughlin (www.jmphotographer.com), who followed the team to classes and did a special photo shoot for us. Soon you'll be able to see the results: the Streetfunk team doing what they do best – spreading the funk around Brighton and Hove whilst looking good!

A big thank you to Vivid Design & Print for all of their help and printing expertise – a truly great company!

26 Sydney Street, Brighton
info@vividbrighton.co.uk

New Classes in January

The Under 15 Bgirl class will be starting in January! They will be running on Thursdays.

Please email Beth or JP to register for these sessions – there are still places available!

EVENTS IN OCTOBER

25th – “White Nights” Festival.
www.whitenightbrightonandhove.com

The festival will include the screening of a short dance film – both JP and Hayley are working on this film which incorporates hip hop, contemporary and parkour, set against the Regency opulence of the Royal Pavilion. Not to be missed!!

MERCHANDISE

We’re introducing new items of merchandise if you haven’t already stocked up on the freshest clothing available.

- t-shirts for adults and kids
- vest tops for the ladies
- hoodies for adults and kids – perfect for keeping warm before and after class, or for those chilly winter days!

The new order forms will be up on the website soon, and available in class!

Want to be in the newsletter? Have a hip hop event to publicise? Email beth@streetfunk.co.uk with details and we’ll do our best to include it in the next issue!

Thank you!

The Streetfunk classes have been flooded with people recently – we’d just like to say a big thank you! It’s really great to see so many people getting involved and having fun, because without you guys, we wouldn’t enjoy ourselves so much!

The whole team is working hard to bring you the best classes and the most funk! Peace!

Contacts & information

Check out the Streetfunk website at www.streetfunk.co.uk or email jp@streetfunk.co.uk